MARINE SECURITY BULLETIN – 24/2026

Dear Shipowners, Operators and Masters

Subject: Vessel Attacks in the Port of Damietta, Egypt

Reference: (a) Update 078 JMIC Advisory Note 30 July
(b) Marine Security Advisory – 09/2023-Rev.13

UKMTO has received reports of two (2) LNG carriers struck by unknown projectiles while moored in the port of Damietta, Egypt, which caused fires on board. While one of the vessels was abandoned, there are no reported casualties and no environmental impact. Authorities are investigating. Vessels are advised to transit with caution and report any suspicious activity to UKMTO. Please refer to reference (a) for current status of the security situation in the Red Sea and Bab el Mandeb.

Security Level

Liberian flagged vessels transiting the Red Sea, Gulf of Aden and Arabian Sea (affected area) are to continue keeping security level 3 and implement all protective measures in their Ship Security Plan. Vessels in the ports of the affected area are required to act upon the security level set by the Designated Authority at those ports but may implement security level measures equivalent to a higher level. In addition, Liberian flagged vessels should avoid calling ports in Yemen. The decision to transit remains at the discretion of the Company, considering the recent targeted attack on a commercial ship perceived as linked to Saudi interests. Liberian flagged vessel, shipowners, operators and masters are highly encouraged to refer to reference (b) for updated information and points of contact prior to navigating through the region.

Recommendations

Mariners are strongly advised to refer to the Joint Maritime Information Centre (JMIC) advisories: https://www.ukmto.org/partner-products/jmic-products for authoritative detail, including geographic limits, conditions of transit, and inspection and authorization requirements, including additional guidance to the threats, mitigations and considerations to transiting this area. Vessels operating in the affected area are advised to maintain heightened awareness, ensure maximum bridge readiness, and exercise appropriate caution with bridge-to-bridge VHF communications.

All owners, operators, and crews should remain cognizant of the elevated threat in the affected area and perform detailed, vessel-specific, voyage- specific and activity specific risk assessments for any operations or transit through the affected area. All vessels should report to the UKMTO and register with the Maritime Security Centre for the Indian Ocean (MSCIO) in accordance with industry BMP (Best Management Practices) and take advice from the coalition forces operating in the area. Best Management Practices for Maritime Security (BMPMS) will continue to provide the necessary guidance for shipping to ensure threat and risk assessments are developed for every voyage to mitigate the risks presented by remaining security threats in the region. The shipping industry will continue to monitor and advise on maritime security threats to assist the safe transit of vessels and seafarers.

UKMTO acts as the primary point of contact for merchant vessels and liaison with military forces in the region. Vessels are encouraged to register with UKMTO and report their positions (By email daily at 08.00 UTC) whilst operating in the area.

The MSCIO is the planning and coordination centre for the EU Naval Forces (EU NAVFOR). MSCIO encourages companies to register their ships' movements before entering the Voluntary Reporting Area (VRA).
