This Advisory provides information regarding the United States “Comprehensive Iran Sanctions, Accountability and Divestment Act of 2010” (the Act). The Act came into force on July 1, 2010, and imposes several new trade sanctions on Iran and parties trading with Iran (see section 102 of the Act).

In part, the Act prohibits:

- Knowingly providing goods, services, technology, information, or support (including shipping, finance, brokerage, and insurance), which have a fair market value of $1 million or more, or during a 12 month period, with an aggregate fair market value of $5 million or more, and which significantly contribute to the enhancement of Iran’s ability to import refined petroleum products.

Definitions from the Act:

“refined petroleum products” - diesel, gasoline, jet fuel (including naphtha-type and kerosene-type jet fuel), and aviation gasoline.
